Sommelier's recommendation:

2008	Serge Dagueneau & Filles Pouilly Fume	Pouilly-Sur-Loire, France	17
------	---------------------------------------	----------------------------------	----

From Serge Dagueneau and daughters Florence & Valerie, comes this youthful and feminine style Sauvignon Blanc. With its creamy texture, balanced with good zesty acid reminiscent of melon and grapefruits, it is a perfect accompaniment to this season's menu. Whilst having the typical French mineral character, it is leveled out with intense fruit flavours to give a balanced mouthfeel.

Sommelier's recommendation:

2008	Henschke 'Keyneton Estate Euphonium' Barossa Valley, SA		17

A wine that I recently had at a house party; this is a welcoming addition to 1907's wine list. Representative of the Australian culture, this plush and rich red wine displays the smoothness of the Shiraz, complexity of the Cabernet Sauvignon, and an exciting oak character of multiple personalities, that unveils itself sip by sip. Lended by 30% new and 70% old French and American oak, this wine is certainly one to be enjoyed with our grilled meat dishes.
